

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION: NEXT STEPS

Austin, Texas

October 20, 2009

Thank You Sponsors!

■ Facilities

- Mark Marek, Director, Design Division, and John Barton, Assistant Executive Director for District Operations, TxDOT
- Facility Staff: Deana Ricks, Helen Havelka, Tan Renwick, Mark Morales

■ On-site coordination

- Brian Bochner, University Transportation Center for Mobility, Texas Transportation Institute
- Heather Ford and Beverly Storey, TTI

■ Staff support and funding

- Federal Highway Administration
- Center for Transportation and the Environment @ North Carolina State University

Continuing the Conversation

Next steps

- Today's materials will be posted on-line
  - www.cssnationaldialog.org
- Future National Dialog Workshops
  - Portland, OR
  - Charlotte, NC
  - Minneapolis, MN
  - Northeast
- Workshop Evaluation

Continuing the Conversation

Building the community of practice

- Take what you heard to your colleagues and partners
- Network with fellow workshop participants
- Initiate and support CSS in your field
- Participate in other CSS-related events and opportunities
- Provide your input on the STEP program
- Use and Contribute to the Clearinghouse
  - www.contextsensitivesolutions.org
  - All submitted case studies will be available at Clearinghouse
  - Online discussion forum
  - Sign up for email notifications
    - News
    - Research and reports
    - Events

Thank You for Your Participation!

CSS National Dialog:
www.cssnationaldialog.org

CSS Clearinghouse:
www.contextsensitivesolutions.org

